MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: The Judge Advocate General's Interservice Continuing Legal Education (On-Site) Training Conference, Fort Belvoir, Virginia 10-11 March 2001

1. The 10th Legal Support Organization (LSO) will host the 2001 Judge Advocate General's Interservice Continuing Legal Education On-Site at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. The training for officers, enlisted, and civilians will be conducted at the Fort Belvoir Community Center on 10-11 March 2001. The conference will begin at 0800 hours, Saturday, 10 March 2001, and conclude at 1500 hours, Sunday, 11 March 2001. The program of instruction will include continuing legal education and professional development training of interest and value to Judge Advocates of all services and components, as well as to civilian attorneys.
2. The conference will offer quality training, afford an exchange of ideas, and a forum in which to and discuss issues and concerns facing the Judge Advocate General's Corps. The conference provides a vital resource for the continuing education of JAGC personnel. This year's conference will focus on criminal and administrative law; contingency contracting; USAR parity legislation; cyber defense and operations; ethics, and a Guard and Reserve Affairs update. Speakers will include military and civilian leaders, as well as faculty members from The United States Army Judge Advocate General's School and The Office of The Judge Advocate General. Continuing Legal Education credit will be available from most states.
3. Enlisted proficiency and refresher training will be provided for Legal Specialists (Army MOS 71D). The conference will combine technical MOS training to enhance proficiency in legal skills with a re-emphasis on the role of the Legal Specialist and Legal NCO in today's Army. In addition, there will be breakout sessions for senior NCO's and Chief Legal NCO's. Enlisted personnel are requested to bring their copy of the MCM, Soldier's Manual, and a copy of AR 27-1.
4. For those Judge Advocates, Legal Administrators, and Legal Specialists assigned to Troop Program Units, this training is mandatory in accordance with AR 27-1, paragraph 10-11. All others are cordially invited to participate. Authorization and orders to attend the On-Site must be obtained from your unit. Do not send requests for orders or DA Forms 1058 to the 10th LSO. DA Form 1380 will be available at the registration table on the day of the conference.

SUBJECT: The Judge Advocate General's Interservice Continuing Legal Education (On-Site) Training Conference, Fort Belvoir, Virginia 10-11 March 2001

5. The registration fee prior to 28 February 2001 for officers and civilian attorneys will be $28.00. This fee includes the luncheon on 10 March 2001, refreshments, and conference materials. There is no registration fee for enlisted. However, enlisted and noncommissioned officers are invited to attend the luncheon at a cost of $25.00. After 28 February 2001, the registration fee will be $35.00.
6. If you are interested in overnight accommodations, there are several military bases in the Military District of Washington that offer housing within commuting distance of the Conference. You will need to make your own billeting arrangements by calling 1-800-GO-ARMY-1.
7. Enclosed is a 2-page questionnaire to be submitted only by senior RC JA Commanders or SJAs attending the On-Site. The questionnaire will be used by the general officer attending the On-Site to identify possible issues to be addressed at the breakout session or unit problems that he may want to assist to resolve.
8. In the event of inclement weather, a recorded message will be made available at 703-447-4155. In addition, throughout the conference a recorded message will be available at this same number which will provide an emergency contact telephone number for the Community Center at Fort Belvoir.
9. The uniform will be Class A or B and compliance with military appearance and height/weight standards is expected. Questions should be directed to the unit at (301) 394-0558/0562, and specifically to MAJ Silas Deroma at 202-305-0427. We look forward to your participation at the conference.
